

text tag upload avatar follow widget POS bot tweet friend post flame podcast sext adware virus cookie java GNOC poke feed griefer blog link cybersex wiki embed Imirl gamertag spyware RSS bit streaming phish

It's easy to feel overwhelmed about parenting in the virtual world.

We're here to help.

Internet Safety 101<sup>SM</sup> is a first-of-its-kind teaching series that paints a comprehensive picture of the dangers children encounter online. Firsthand accounts and exclusive footage from law enforcement experts, teens, victims, clinicians, a sexual predator, parents and respected industry leaders are woven into this four-part filmed teaching presentation, led by renowned Internet safety expert and Enough Is Enough (EIE) President, Donna Rice Hughes.

Internet Safety 101<sup>SM</sup> covers the essential technical and non-technical safety basics you need to know to become educated, empowered and equipped to protect children from threats like pornography, sexual predators and cyberbullies, in a simple, user-friendly format for individual or group use.

Find out more about the program or order your copy of Internet Safety 101<sup>SM</sup> by visiting us at www.internetsafety101.org or calling 1-888-744-0004.